

Proof of Payment

For the clearance of your shipment we require a suitable proof of payment of the specific contents of the shipment like a legible order transaction, or order or job confirmation or purchase agreement or PayPal statement.

A proof of payment should contain payee; bill to address; amount and currency; description of goods and purchase date and in ideal way also freight costs and the delivery address.

The customs authorities shall not accept an invoice as proof of payment.